Amazon Odyssey

AUGUST 1-12, 2027

Where Jungle, River, and Wonder Meet

Venture into the heart of the Amazon on a unique 10-night journey aboard the MS Brasilian Dream. Glide past pink dolphins, explore ancient caves, and wander rainforest trails few travelers ever see. Visit vibrant river villages and witness the jungle awaken with a symphony of birds at dawn. Every bend of the river reveals a new wonder.

DAYS 1-2: WELCOME TO BRAZIL!

After an overnight flight, arrive in Manaus, the gateway to the Amazon. Discover the city's lively markets and step inside the grand Teatro Amazonas, a Renaissance jewel adorned with marble and Murano glass. This evening, step aboard your home for the next 10 nights, the MS Brasilian Dream, where you will meet the crew over a Welcome Dinner and begin your journey along the Amazon and its tributaries. L, D

DAY 3: RIO NEGRO

Wake with the jungle as parrots, macaws, and eagles soar overhead, and with luck, catch sight of playful pink and gray river dolphins. A morning walk reveals the incredible diversity of Amazonian flora, from towering palms to medicinal plants still used by riverbank communities today. Later, cruise toward Trés Bocas, where an afternoon boat ride brings you closer to the jungle's wild wonders. B, L, D

DAY 4: MADADA CAVES

Venture into the rainforest to explore the mysterious Madada Caves, adorned with ancient rock engravings over 3,000 years old. Along the way, discover the jungle's extraordinary plants and their uses in indigenous traditions. In the afternoon, board a motorized canoe for more wildlife spotting as your ship makes its way toward the Meduini River. B, L, D

DAY 5: JAÚ NATIONAL PARK

Begin the day with an excursion along the Meduini River before continuing into Jaú National Park, the largest protected tropical rainforest in South America and a UNESCO World Heritage Site. On a guided forest walk, stand beneath the colossal Samauma tree, one of the Amazon's true giants. In the afternoon, explore the winding Carabineni River by small boat, watching for wildlife that thrives in its pristine waters. B, L, D

DAY 6: LIFE ALONG THE JAÚ RIVER

At sunrise, glide by canoe into the forest with local villagers as guides. Visit a riverside community and school to learn about life and culture in this region before returning to your ship for an afternoon of relaxed cruising and wildlife watching. After dark, set out with flashlights to spot caimans and other nocturnal creatures lurking along the banks. B, L, D

DAY 7: ITAOBAL TRAIL

Hike the scenic Itaobal Trail to a hidden waterfall and crystal-clear lake, keeping watch for caimans resting along the banks. Later, step into history at Airão Velho, an abandoned rubber boom town now reclaimed by the jungle. The crumbling ruins of homes and plantations offer a haunting reminder of the region's past prosperity. B, L, D

DAY 8: NOVO AIRÃO

Arrive in Novo Airão, a friendly riverside village known for its handicrafts, brewery, and as the gateway to the vast Anavilhanas Archipelago. In the afternoon, cruise toward Acajatuba, Experience plenty of opportunities to observe unique wildlife in their natural habitats and enjoy memorable sightings along the way.

where small boats take you closer to the riverbanks for an intimate look at Amazonian life. B, L, D

DAY 9: ACAJATUBA & THE ARIAÚ RIVER

Wander the stilted wooden houses of colorful Acajatuba before venturing by boat along the Ariaú Canal, which links the Amazon and Rio Negro. This lush corridor is rich with wildlife, including playful mão amarela monkeys swinging through the treetops. B, L, D

DAY 10: MEETING OF THE WATERS

At sunrise, watch the forest awaken as birds scatter across the sky and fishermen set out in their canoes. Witness the natural wonder of the “Meeting of the Waters,” where the dark Rio Negro runs side by side with the sandy Solimões for nearly 50 miles, their colors swirling like ribbons before merging into the mighty Amazon. B, L, D

DAY 11: JANAUACÁ LAKE

Begin the day on Janauacá Lake, alive with bird calls, darting dolphins, and fishermen casting their nets. Visit the fertile floodplains where locals farm cassava and raise livestock, then enjoy a final day of wildlife spotting as you cruise upriver. By evening, sail the Solimões back toward Manaus for your last night on board. B, L, D

DAY 12: RETURN HOME

After one last breakfast on board, say farewell to the crew and disembark the ship to depart for your return flight home. B
