Autumn in the Smokies

The Smoky Mountains Come Alive with Vibrant Fall Colors

— OCTOBER 12-17, 2027 —

Experience the beauty of autumn in the Smoky Mountains as vibrant fall color stretches across scenic mountain landscapes, charming towns, and winding country roads. From an evening at the legendary Grand Ole Opry to the grandeur of Biltmore Estate and the breathtaking scenery of Great Smoky Mountains National Park, this journey blends music, history, culture, and natural beauty at a relaxed pace. Along the way, enjoy time in Asheville, learn about Cherokee history and traditions, and take in some of the region's most spectacular fall foliage.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO NASHVILLE!

Arrive in Music City! Meet your Tour Director and fellow travelers for a welcome dinner in Nashville, TN. D

DAY 2: MOUNTAIN MAJESTIES

As we head into the heart of the Smoky Mountains, enjoy a visit to Ober Mountain. Soar above Gatlinburg on Ober Mountain's 2.1-mile aerial journey, where brilliant fall foliage blankets the Great Smoky Mountains in hues of red, gold, and amber, offering some of the most breathtaking autumn views in the region. Continue to Asheville and unpack for a two-night stay. B, D

DAY 3: BILTMORE ESTATE

Start your day with a scenic trolley tour of Asheville, NC, enjoying its eclectic boutiques, charming streets, and vibrant local culture. Then, discover the grandeur of the Biltmore Estate, America's largest private home. Explore its 250 lavishly appointed rooms, impressive architecture, and rich Vanderbilt history before enjoying lunch at the Stable Café, located in the Estate's historic former horse stables. B, L

DAY 4: GREAT SMOKY NATIONAL PARK/PIGEON FORGE

Experience the vivid 11,000-year-old story of human history during a morning visit to the Museum of Cherokee People. Visit the Oconaluftee Visitor Center, the gateway to the Smoky Mountains, before a local guide leads us through this ecological wonderland. Pass through the heart of the Great Smoky Mountains National Park bursting with gorgeous fall foliage. Finish the day at the Titanic Museum, where you can explore the ship's captivating artifacts and stories, then savor a unique dining experience aboard the legendary vessel. B, D

DAY 5: MUSIC CITY

Travel to Music City, the home of country music's greatest stars. Visit the Country Music Hall of Fame to admire memorabilia from Garth Brooks, June Carter Cash, and more. Take in the history, the sights, and the stories that shaped the genre. As evening falls, head to the Grand Ole Opry for a lively, unforgettable show that brings the legends to life! B, D
