

NEW TOUR

Canyons and Cowboys

The Ultimate Arizona Adventure, Featuring an Authentic Dude Ranch Stay

— APRIL 25-MAY 3, 2027 —

Discover the spirit of the American Southwest on an unforgettable journey through Arizona's most breathtaking landscapes. Ride through dramatic red rock canyons by rail, float the Colorado River beneath towering cliffs, explore the iconic wonders of Navajo Nation, and cap it all off with a stay at an authentic dude ranch where cowboy culture comes to life under the desert sky.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO ARIZONA!

The journey begins with a flight into Phoenix, where warm desert sunshine and a tasty dinner welcome you. D

DAY 2: VERDE CANYON RAILROAD

Today, travel to Clarkdale, AZ, to board the historic Verde Canyon Railroad. Sit back and enjoy a spectacular rail journey through towering red rock canyons and along the Verde River. After a delightful lunch at the depot, continue north to the cool mountain air of Flagstaff. B, L

DAY 3: HORSESHOE BEND/ANTELOPE CANYON

Prepare for stunning desert landscapes along the journey toward Page. Stop at the breathtaking Horseshoe Bend Overlook, where the Colorado River curves dramatically through towering canyon walls. Then, explore the world-famous Antelope Canyon on a guided tour, marveling at its sculpted sandstone and shifting beams of light. Check into your hotel in Page, AZ, for the first of two nights. B

DAY 4: RAFT TRIP/RED HERITAGE DINNER THEATER

Enjoy a smooth water raft trip from Lees Ferry, floating along the Colorado River and around Horseshoe Bend for a truly unique perspective of the canyon. Later, delight in an evening of entertainment and dining at the Red Heritage Dinner Theater, featuring vibrant Native American performances. B, D

DAY 5: MONUMENT VALLEY

The highlight today is the iconic Monument Valley, where you'll embark on a tour with a Native guide through towering sandstone buttes and mesas. Enjoy a traditional Navajo lunch and gain insight into the rich culture and history of the region. B, L

DAY 6: CANYON DE CHELLY

Continue your cultural exploration with a jeep tour of Canyon de Chelly. This National Monument is of deep historical significance and natural beauty, containing ruins of the Ancestral Pueblo society carved into canyon walls. Travel to Holbrook, AZ, for your overnight stay. B

DAY 7: WHITE STALLION RANCH

Travel south through desert vistas to Tucson where you'll begin your two-night Dude Ranch adventure at the renowned White Stallion Ranch. Surrounded by the beauty of the Sonoran Desert, this authentic ranch offers a true taste of the Old West. B, D

Float down the Colorado River

DAY 8: DUDE RANCH ACTIVITIES

Today, immerse yourself in ranch life. Learn the history and traditions of the ranch through a variety of activities, which may include archery, target shooting, or a craft class. Spend the evening clapping along to lively cowboy entertainment. B, L, D

DAY 9: RETURN HOME

Savor a hearty breakfast before departing for the airport, taking with you unforgettable memories of dramatic landscapes, rich cultures, and the timeless spirit of the American Southwest. B 🌵

TOUR DETAILS

9 Days • 15 Meals

Apr 25-May 3, 2027

Price Per Person:

Double: $5,247; Single: $7,145

Pre/Post Hotel: Call for pricing

Depart/Return:

Phoenix, AZ

HIGHLIGHTS

- Ride aboard the scenic Verde Canyon Railroad
- Enjoy a calm rafting trip on the Colorado River through Horseshoe Bend
- Visit the unparalleled sites of Navajo Nation, including Antelope Canyon, Monument Valley, and Canyon de Chelly
- Experience the cowboy life with activities at White Stallion Dude Ranch

ACCOMMODATIONS

Night 1: Drury Inn and Suites
Phoenix Airport, AZ

Night 2: Drury Inn and
Suites Flagstaff, AZ

Nights 3-4: Courtyard by
Marriott- Page, AZ

Night 5: Hampton Inn Kayenta, AZ

Night 6: Quality Inn Holbrook, AZ

Nights 7-8: White Stallion
Ranch, Tucson, AZ

Excellent Mobility Required