

Glacier and Waterton National Parks

Enjoy the Rocky Mountains from Both Sides of the Border

— AUGUST 24-31, 2027 —

In 1932 the U.S. and Canada unified Glacier and Waterton Lakes National Parks into an International Peace Park to commemorate peace and goodwill between the nations. Together, these parks create a breathtaking landscape of soaring peaks, turquoise lakes, and unforgettable mountain scenery. Experience this remarkable region from both sides of the border as you explore Glacier and Waterton Lakes National Parks.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO SPOKANE!

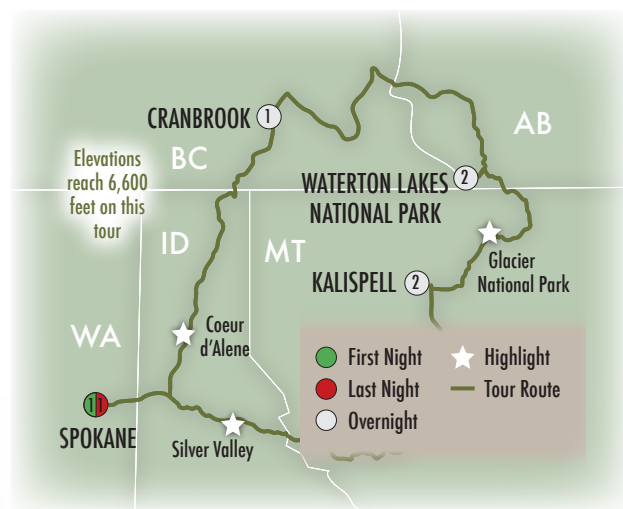

Arrive in Spokane and settle into your hotel before meeting your fellow travelers for a special welcome dinner. D

DAY 2: COEUR D'ALENE

Enjoy a morning tour with a local guide before boarding a scenic cruise on beautiful Lake Coeur d'Alene. Then we'll continue north and cross into Canada for dinner and an overnight stay at Prestige Rocky Mountain Resort. B, D

DAY 3: GLACIER-WATERTON INTERNATIONAL PEACE PARK

The full splendor of the Canadian Rockies awaits as you enter Waterton Lakes National Park. Along with Glacier, Waterton Lakes forms the International Peace Park, a UNESCO World Heritage Site shared by the United States and Canada to commemorate the continued peace and goodwill between the two nations. Check in for a two-night stay at Waterton Lakes Lodge Resort, located just a short walk from the water's edge and surrounded by beautiful mountain views. B, L

DAY 4: WATERTON LAKES NATIONAL PARK

Step aboard a morning cruise of Upper Waterton Lake that continues past the international border and into Glacier National Park. Return to Waterton and spend the day surrounded by alpine lakes, cascading waterfalls, and breathtaking mountain scenery, plus dinner at the historic Prince of Wales Hotel. B, D

DAY 5: RED BUS TOUR

Say goodbye to the Canadian Rockies and hello to Glacier National Park. After crossing into the U.S., visit St. Mary Village before beginning the famous Red Bus Jammer tour along Going-to-the-Sun Road. Nicknamed the "Rubies of the Rockies," these historic vehicles have carried travelers through Glacier's spectacular scenery for generations. B, L

Enjoy dinner at the Prince of Wales Hotel

DAY 6: GLACIER FLOAT

This morning, float through the breathtaking scenery of Glacier National Park along the Flathead River. Watch for eagles, osprey, moose, and other wildlife as you learn about the area from your expert guide. Continue on to the charming town of Whitefish, MT, for some free time and lunch on your own. B, D

DAY 7: SILVER VALLEY

Travel west into Idaho and discover the rich mining history of the Silver Valley. Visit the classic mining town of Wallace, best known as the filming location for the 1997 movie, Dante's Peak. Later, enjoy a special tour of a working silver mine and learn about the fascinating methods of hard-rock mining before continuing to Spokane. B, D

DAY 8: FLY HOME

Return home with unforgettable memories of Glacier National Park, the towering Rocky Mountains, and the fellow travelers who shared the journey. B
