

New England's Rails and Resorts

Enjoy Fall's Scenic Beauty With Unique Highlights

— MULTIPLE DATES —

Experience the beauty of New England's fall foliage as you ride three scenic railways through the mountains, lakes, and charming towns of New Hampshire and Maine. Journey aboard the world's first mountain-climbing cog railway, enjoy a relaxing lakeside dinner train, and travel through the breathtaking White Mountains during peak foliage. Along the way, you'll stroll classic New England villages, stay at inviting resorts, and experience the region's rich rail history, coastal charm, and spectacular autumn scenery.

DAY 1: WELCOME TO NEW ENGLAND!

Meet your Tour Director and fellow travelers at a welcome dinner in Boston, the historic capital of Massachusetts. D

DAY 2: CONCORD/JUST MAPLE/LAKE WINNIPESAUKEE RAILROAD

Enjoy a relaxing morning in Concord, New Hampshire, as you stroll its quaint streets with amazing capital views in sight. After grabbing a bite to eat, we'll visit Just Maple to learn all about maple syrup, enjoy some samples, and get to know the family business. Then it's on to Lake Winnepesaukee Scenic Railroad for a dinner train ride along the western shore of Lake Winnepesaukee. B, D

DAY 3: FLUME GORGE/"THE KANC"

Spend the morning enjoying time at our lakeside resort in Meredith; delight in a delicious breakfast, stroll the streets of downtown Meredith, and shop at the marketplace. Later today, prepare to be in awe as we walk along the Flume Gorge on wooden walkways, past waterfalls, and 90-foot-high rock walls. We'll end our day exploring New Hampshire's famed White Mountains and the Kancamagus Highway, renowned among New Englanders as one of the region's most pristine scenic drives. Witness the splendor of the National Forest as you cross the 2,800-foot Kancamagus Pass, aka “The Kanc.” B, D

DAY 4: MT WASHINGTON/COG RAIL

Start your day with a visit to the grand Mt. Washington Hotel, followed by a delicious lunch. Then, it's on to today's highlight — a round-trip ride on the historic Mt. Washington Cog Railroad, the world's first mountain-climbing cog train. In just a few miles, you will ride the second steepest track railway in the world up to the second highest point in the eastern U.S. (weather permitting). On a clear day, you can see from New York State to Maine... and even up into Quebec, Canada. Spend the rest of the night relaxing at our hotel. B, L, D

DAY 5: CONWAY SCENIC RAILROAD

Spend time exploring the charming town of Conway before boarding the Conway Scenic Railroad for a memorable ride through New Hampshire's spectacular White Mountains. Travel through Crawford Notch past rugged cliffs, forested slopes, and sweeping mountain scenery as the train crosses the famous Frankenstein Trestle and Willey Brook Bridge en route to Crawford Station. Later, continue to Kennebunkport for a relaxing stay at the historic Nonantum Resort, where the evening is yours to enjoy dinner and unwind at your leisure. B, L

DAY 6: PORTLAND/ KENNEBUNKPORT/ LOBSTER TALK

Today, we'll head to the vibrant coastal city of Portland, Maine.

Our first stop is the Portland Head Lighthouse, where we'll discover the history behind the most photographed lighthouse in America and its many keepers. After a bite to eat, explore Portland's famous Old Port, a quaint historic district filled with cobblestone streets and local shops. Then, it's back to Kennebunkport for some free time and a group dinner at our resort. After our farewell meal, we'll chat with Captain Bob, a local Lobsterman, to learn the ins and outs of lobster fishing and what makes these crustaceans a Maine staple. B, L, D

DAY 7: BOSTON CITY TOUR/HOME

This morning, we'll delight in a duck tour where you'll experience a fully narrated tour of Boston by both land and water! Explore the “Birthplace of Freedom” as you cruise past Quincy Market, the historic north end, the Old State House and more. Then, it's time to head back home with wonderful memories of New England's colorful autumn landscapes. B 🦆
