

NEW TOUR

The von Trapp Lodge and Fall Colors

The Best of Autumn from the Berkshires to Vermont

— OCTOBER 3-8, 2027 —

Celebrate New England at its most colorful as brilliant fall foliage blankets the Berkshires, Adirondacks, and Green Mountains. Explore elegant estates, discover beloved Norman Rockwell artwork, cruise the sparkling waters of Lake George and savor Vermont favorites from fresh cider donuts to Ben and Jerry's ice cream. Along the way, enjoy charming towns, scenic mountain vistas, and an unforgettable overnight stay at the von Trapp Family Lodge and Resort, where the story that inspired The Sound of Music comes to life. From historic landmarks to picture-perfect autumn landscapes, this journey showcases the very best of New England in fall.

DAY 1: FALL IN THE NORTHEAST

Meet your fellow travelers at our welcome dinner in Albany, the historic capital of New York and your home for the next two nights. D

DAY 2: THE BERKSHIRES

Begin your day with a guided tour of the New York State Capitol, renowned for its impressive architecture, ornate interiors, and fascinating history. Discover the stories behind the building's three architects and the craftsmanship that makes it one of the nation's most impressive state capitols. Then travel to the charming Berkshire town of Lenox for lunch and a guided tour of The Mount, the elegant estate of Pulitzer Prize-winning author Edith Wharton. This afternoon, visit the Norman Rockwell Museum, home to the world's largest collection of Rockwell's artwork, and discover the history and inspiration behind many of his beloved paintings. End the day with dinner at the historic The Red Lion Inn, a Berkshire landmark known for its warm hospitality and timeless New England charm. B, L, D

DAY 3: SARATOGA SPRINGS AND LAKE GEORGE

This morning, visit Old Friends at Cabin Creek, a retirement sanctuary where champion Thoroughbred racehorses enjoy their well-earned retirement. Meet some of racing's most celebrated horses and hear the remarkable stories behind their careers. Continue to the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame for a private tour highlighting the people, horses, and moments that shaped the sport. This afternoon, board a scenic cruise on beautiful Lake George, known as the "Queen of American Lakes." Relax as crystal-clear waters, mountain views, and vibrant fall foliage surround you on one of New York's most scenic lakes. B, L

DAY 4: THE VON TRAPP FAMILY LODGE

Cross into Vermont and discover why the Green Mountain State is the perfect place for fall foliage. Start the day by watching master artisans at work during a glassblowing demonstration at Simon Pearce, then enjoy time to browse its stunning collection of handcrafted glassware. Continue to Quechee Gorge, where sweeping views provide one of Vermont's most memorable fall foliage panoramas. At the King Arthur Baking Company, enjoy some time to shop, watch baking demonstrations, and savor a sweet treat at this beloved culinary destination. This afternoon, visit Cold Hollow Cider Mill, where fresh-pressed cider, warm cider donuts, and famous maple creemees provide a true taste of Vermont. Later, arrive at the beautiful von Trapp Family Lodge and Resort with time to explore the grounds and take in sweeping mountain views. Discover the lodge's rich brewing tradition during a brewery tour before gathering for dinner. Cap off the day with an unforgettable overnight stay at this Austrian-inspired alpine retreat, founded by the family whose story inspired The Sound of Music. B, L, D

DAY 5: AUTUMN IN THE GREEN MOUNTAIN STATE

Enjoy a leisurely morning at the von Trapp Family Lodge and Resort to relax, browse the gift shop, stroll the scenic grounds, and take in the stunning views of the Green Mountain State.

Option—Meet the Cows Tour at von Trapp Lodge and Resort Join the farmers at von Trapp Family Lodge and Resort to meet their Scottish Highland cattle and learn about their role on the farm Price: $30 per person

Later, learn the fascinating story of the von Trapp family during a guided family history tour that brings their remarkable journey to life. After lunch in the Main Dining Hall, head to the iconic Ben and Jerry's Factory for a guided tour and free time to sample your favorite flavors, browse the gift shop, and even visit the Flavor Graveyard. This evening, enjoy dinner at the historic Ye Olde Tavern, a beloved Vermont institution built in 1790 and serving classic New England fare. Afterwards, return to Albany for your final overnight stay. B, L, D

DAY 6: SO LONG, FAREWELL

Bid farewell to your fellow travelers as you depart with memories of vibrant fall colors, charming New England villages, and the unforgettable hospitality of Vermont's von Trapp Family Lodge. B 🌍
